

LED lighting, HVAC, and building automation parts for hospitals, clinics, medical practices – and more.

fhpsolutions.com

From Focus Healthcare Products' online resource fhpsolutions.com, you can find all the LED lighting products and HVAC and building automation controls that you need for hospitals, ambulatory and outpatient centers, residential long-term care centers, and medical practices.

LED lighting helps hospitals and medical facilities improve the patient experience by providing effective illumination and addressing infection control standards. Building automation and HVAC controls provide energy efficiency, air quality management, and optimal conditions in critical environments.

We offer millions of parts from more than 130 of the industry's leading manufacturers, including:
